

OF COURSE YOU WILL ATTEND THE BANQUET GIVEN TO THE MAIN LINE CHAMPIONS TO-NIGHT

LECTURE ON FORESTRY FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 24

Second Meeting to be Held Friday—Interesting Program

The second meeting of the Community Club will be held at the school house, 8 P. M., Friday, November 24. As previously announced the entertainment will consist of an illustrated lecture on forestry, by Deputy Commissioner of Forestry, for the State of Pennsylvania, Irvin C. Williams.

Undoubtedly Mr. Williams will have a great deal of interesting facts to tell us of our own areas of woodland. Some of the pictures will, it is believed, show familiar scenes, especially to those of us who have traveled extensively in Pennsylvania.

All those who have not as yet purchased season tickets should make it a point to do so at once. Any member of the Community Club board of managers (see names in another part of this paper) can arrange to procure tickets for you. Tickets for this single entertainment will be sold at fifty cents each, by Community Club members and at the school house the night of the lecture.

CARD OF SYMPATHY.

The friends of Mrs. Robert E. Pattison extend their sympathy to her and her family for the loss of her daughter, Mrs. J. Lawrence Perry, who died on Friday in Alexandria, Virginia. She was buried from Narberth.

(The following news item appeared in Sunday's Inquirer. Can anyone give us more information concerning the matter?)

"COMMUNITY COWS" TO CUT PRICE OF MILK CONSIDERED.

Narberth Women May Introduce Scheme, Allotting Families to Bovines.

In an effort to solve the problem of the present high cost of milk, members of the Mothers' Association, of Narberth, Pa., are considering the purchase of community cows. The plan will be considered at the next meeting of the organization, in December.

Since the recent increase in the cost of milk many women in Narberth have complained that the present prices cut too deeply into the household pocketbooks to allow them to feed milk to their children as generously as in the past. Likewise, it has been necessary to curtail the many delicious desserts in which milk played an important part.

At the last meeting of the association the subject was discussed by the members, among whom are numbered many of Narberth's best-known women. At that time the suggestion was advanced that various families agree upon the purchase of a cow, the families for each cow to be limited according to the animal's producing capacity.

The only objection offered to the scheme was the fact that none of the women had ever been a milkmaid. Since then a gardener who is without employment for the winter months has offered his services for the milking job at a reasonable price. The women have figured that they can divide the cost of the cows and the feed, as well as the milk's salary, and still procure their milk cheaper than under the present rate.

MISS RIDGE IN RECITAL.

Friends of Miss Ethel Ridge, 215 Forrest avenue, will doubtless be interested to learn that she appeared recently with pronounced success in a recital given in the auditorium of the Combs' Conservatory of Music, Philadelphia. Miss Ridge played "Impromptu C Sharp Minor," Reinhold, displaying adequate technic combined with marked interpretative power. Miss Ridge is pursuing the piano course under the supervision of Gilbert Reynolds Combs, founder and director of the Conservatory.

The program was as follows:

Program.

- Piano Etudes Nos. 1 and 2. Duvernoy
- Marguerite Portley
- Piano Gavotte Bach
- Irma Davis
- Piano Waltz in E Minor Chopin
- Ruth Altenderfer
- Violin Souvenir Drdla
- Samuel Gillespie
- Vocal "Cry of Rachael" Salter
- Helen Whitney
- Piano "Lieberstraume" Liszt

GOSSIP.

You've seen many a comic picture of over-the-back-fence gossipers; you've read many a so-called funny bit of dialogue supposed to have been spoken by one of the gossipy kind of women (oh, yes, there are some women who do not gossip, we allow)—but—BUT—you just go to the Arcade Theatre on Monday evening, December 4, and learn what real gossips are like—honest-to-type Narberth quality gossips. Whew! Some chatter and some laughs while the chatter is on! Take along your out-of-town guest—show them "small-town life" at its best. Benefit Woman's Suffrage party of Narberth.

"HOW THE STORY GREW."

You've made some casual mention of an innocent fact some time during your life and, after a short period, have heard that fact retailed in such a garbled manner that you were amazed that anyone could make your statement so elastic. Perhaps its meaning "turned inside out."

Well, on Monday evening, December 4, Narberth is to hear of a story that grew so big that finally it bursted—as all such stories must when Truth strikes its mighty blow.

But before Truth strikes, there's many a laugh caused by Mrs. Green, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Bean, Mrs. Doolittle, Mrs. Snow, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. White; and besides these busybodies there's a complete program of vaudeville stunts. Benefit Woman's Suffrage party of Narberth.

COMMON ERRORS TO BE AVOIDED IN PREPARING AND POSTING MAIL.

Failing to put your own name and address on letters and packages.

Failing to place stamps on letters, or an insufficient amount.

Mailing letters without addressing them at all.

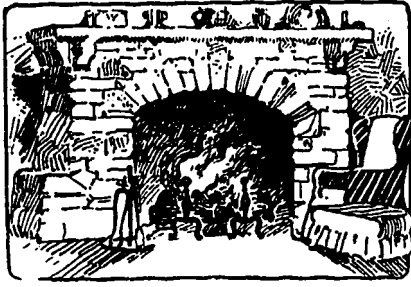

Leaving off the name of the State or putting on the name of your own State where some other is intended.

Leaving off the name of the post office or addressing the county instead of the town; sometimes leaving off the name of the person.

Sending currency by ordinary mail when a money order or registry can be secured at such a small cost.

Failing to put on regular postage in addition to special delivery stamp when special delivery is desired.

Don't forget the base ball banquet to be given to the Champions.

THE FIRESIDE

Betty Baxter's Gossip.

Mrs. Stevenson and daughters are visiting Mrs. Thos. Trotter.

Miss Helen Duff entertained the Delta Sigma Sorority on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wenmer and Miss Wenmer have gone to Lansdowne for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Downes are entertaining Mr. P. J. Noone, of Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. Harry Hartley, of Forrest avenue, entertained the Wednesday afternoon sewing club.

Mrs. Robert McQuilken and daughters, and Miss Helen McQuilken, have returned from Pittsburgh.

Friends of Mr. J. H. Jefferies are glad to see him home again looking so well after his health quest on a Wyoming ranch.

Ground has been broken on the old Justice property, North Narberth avenue, for the erection of two houses by William D. Smedley.

Mrs. C. P. Fowler, Mrs. Wm. M. Cameron and Mrs. Wm. Livingston, representing the Narberth Community Club, were guests of the Ardmore Club at a luncheon on Friday.

Mrs. J. F. Bradley, of Essex avenue, Narberth, gave a luncheon, followed by bridge, Friday, when her guests were Mrs. William Claghorn, Mrs. R. J. Mullen, Mrs. Frederick Lineaweaver, Mrs. William B. Goodall, Mrs. Horace G. Polhemus, Mrs. Romaine C. Hoffman and Mrs. William S. Maddox.

Owing to the very cramped quarters at the Narberth post office patrons are requested for their own convenience and that of the employees as well to purchase stamps for holiday use in quantities and as early as possible. Plans are being prepared for an addition to the present post office, but it cannot be built in time for the approaching holiday season.

The first dance of the Narberth Assembly was held Friday evening. There is to be a series of dances during the winter. The music was exceptionally fine and one of the features of the evening was an elimination dance, the winners of which were awarded handsome prizes. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bodamsky, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Turner, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hillegas, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Drinker, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Metzgar, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. NARBERTH FOOT BALL TEAM TIES EWING A. A.

In Hard-Fought Game, Narberth Holds Strong City Team

The Narberth foot ball team held the strong Ewing A. A. team to a scoreless tie. Our boys were greatly outweighed and deserve worlds of credit for their plucky fight. Nearly everyone, after seeing the big Ewing bunch trot on the field, hoped our team would hold them to a low score. A tie game was not thought of. When you consider such little fellows as McCarter and Dickie being tackled by the Ewing's big men, it is remarkable they stood the hard knocks and lasted the entire game. Below is the line-up:—

Kerwoodleft tackle.... Lukens

FOOT BALL NOTES.

Some game.

A moral victory.

Poor Mr. Ewing.

No college, professional or amateur foot ball team ever battled harder than our bunch last Saturday.

It would be unfair to select any one player as a star performer, as the entire team played well against the overwhelming odds.

"Knock 'Em Dead" Kerwood gave way to Hand toward the end of the game, after receiving a severe jolt on the head.

For such a close grueling contest it was very cleanly played.

Ewing has a good team, but they under-estimated our team.

VOCAL

Maestro Arturo Papalardo, the noted Italian conductor and vocal teacher, who is a recent Philadelphia musical acquisition, has just made Narberth his home and in view of this our readers will probably like to know something of him.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The past week has been observed by the local Young Men's Christian Association as Association Week of Prayer. Each evening from 7.30 to 8 there has been a group of men meet in a prayer circle. These meetings were intensely beneficial and our regret is that more men did not drop in to get a share of the spiritual blessing that comes with meetings of this character.

Boys' Game Room

This added equipment and attraction has done much to help solve the boy situation. The boys are taking much pride in their new room and the self-government plan is working to a wonderful degree. The room is open each evening, except Tuesday, from 7.30 to 9.30 and we are always glad to have visitors. Drop in and let the boys see you are interested.

Does the Shoe Fit?

Suppose—Narberth did not have a Young Men's Christian Association; the various organizations did not have a building centrally located, where they could meet.

Suppose—The boys were forced to play in the streets and congregate on streets corners; the young men did not have a healthy meeting place where the ideals are high.

Suppose—There was no Men's Game Room, where so much interest and enthusiasm abound; no Gymnasium, where physical power is generated.

Suppose—A hundred other things. Again

Suppose—The Y. M. C. A. Building could be picked up and taken to some other community that is longing for some such community asset. Would there be any change in Narberth?

Suppose—You brought a friend to see our handsome building, of which you are so proud, and, alas, a sign was on the front door reading something like this:

CLOSED

The Narberth People Cannot Support This Building
Then—What would you do? Why not do it now?

Bowling

Big game Friday night, Narberth vs. Rovers. Don't miss this match. Lots of fun. Drop in.

One of the young men who was of a group of perpetrators of malicious mischief on Hallowe'en was "caught with the goods" that he left behind on the lawn of one of our citizens. He is known to our local authorities and yet no steps are taken to "make an example" of one of those youths who have no respect for the property of other folks. Perhaps these same youths defaced the rubbish cans bearing the name of the Narberth Civic Association.

WHO'S THE CUB?

Editor of Our Town: Will you please publish the name of the Cub? The members of my household are very much interested in his weekly column and are anxious to know the name of so clever a chronicler. We shall look for your answer in next week's issue of Our Town.

Interested.

ANSWER: As much as the editor of Our Town would like to give you the information you request, he can do so only by forfeiting the support of our mutually admired protegee. The Cub will write only so long as the editor keeps his identity a secret. I will tell you, however, that he is one of Narberth's most respected citizens of the "younger set."

HOLD OUT MONDAY, DECEMBER 4.

Rehearsals for the all-star vaudeville performance to be given a week from Monday evening by the Woman's Suffrage party of Narberth are proving to be such mirth-provoking events that the performers are inviting friends known to have indigestion to act as a test audience. As a result, the doctors complain they can sell no more pills for relief of dyspepsia. The suffragists are developers of unusual stunts at all times; but they are outdoing themselves for this particular occasion. It will be a wise husband who knows his own wife on the night of December 4, provided she is one of the vaudevillians.

SOMETHING FOR COUNCIL TO CONSIDER

The following five DON'TS are being featured by the city of Philadelphia in their present campaign to recruit year-round clean-up boosters. They are pretty good paragraphs for the serious consideration of the Narberth Council:

DON'T mix rubbish with ashes. Separation has economical value and practical advantage in disposal. Rubbish is salable; clean ashes are an important asset in reclaiming city low lands. Separation by householders is an easily acquired habit.

DON'T fail to use tight receptacles for rubbish, ashes and garbage. Essentially it is necessary that every receptacle should be non-leakable and non-spillable. Galvanized iron receptacles are preferred for ashes and garbage, leaving three inches clear space between the top of the receptacle and contents to insure clean handling. Rubbish not set out in tight receptacles should be securely tied into bundles.

DON'T be indifferent toward the appearance of your streets and avoid sweeping store and sidewalk dirt, grass cuttings, waste paper and fruit peelings into the street. Avoid the packing, unpacking or storing of material on the sidewalk or street and the indiscriminate distribution of hand bills, circulars, etc. All these things are a combination against which a CLEAN STREETS campaign is helpless. Eliminate these practices as an individual and by neighborhood co-operation. Use the proper kind of receptacle for all household waste.

DON'T overload or carelessly load street vehicles transporting materials, particularly dirt wagons. Practical street cleaning operates under a handicap due to dirt dropping from over-loaded wagons and the pickering of ash and rubbish receptacles by scavengers, the spilled contents being tracked over the street by traffic. All thoroughfares are rendered unsightly and conditions thus created are extremely insanitary and dangerous to public health.

DON'T forget that every particle of dirt or rubbish and every scrap of paper carelessly thrown or allowed to find its way onto the highways must later be picked up and removed, and that you, the tax-payer, must pay for having this done. Untidy conditions in your home would be looked upon as intolerable. Why abuse the highways, which belong to you and are just as much in your keeping? Acquire the habit of keeping them clean and stimulate your neighbor to better individual effort and compliance with the laws.

FOREIGN MAIL SERVICE.

During the twelve months prior to June 30th, 1916, Uncle Sam's foreign mail service carried 2,500,000 pounds of letters and 23,500,000 pounds of other mail matter—which shows that the people across the seas still communicate with each other despite the war.

In sending a foreign letter one should make certain that he has affixed the proper amount of postage, for all international letters are forwarded, even though they do not bear sufficient postage and double the shortage is collected from the addressee. Foreign rates are five cents for the first ounce, three cents for the second ounce or fraction thereof, etc.

By special convention the English and German rates were two cents, but the German rates are now special. The rate from New Zealand to the United States was two cents; but from the United States to New Zealand it was five cents until October 14 last, when by convention the rate was fixed at two cents either way.

Special delivery stamps on foreign mail may expedite the collection and delivery of letters to the foreign mail department of the service; but they have no effect on delivery of the letters abroad, as there is no provision in the conventions for such service in Europe.

Patrons are requested to forward foreign mail for the holiday season earlier than usual, for while letters will be delivered abroad, barring the impossible and confiscation by the censor, it cannot be done with the speed and ease assured in times of peace.

International Parcel Post

International parcel post service is arranged by special convention with each country, and is used chiefly for the export of merchandise. The rate is twelve cents a pound and limit of weight eleven pounds to all countries except to Ecuador and Panama, where the limit has recently been raised to twenty pounds.

THE MORMON CANCER.

In an address delivered at the Narberth Presbyterian Church Sunday evening, November 19, Mrs. Lulu Loveland Shepard paid her respects to the Mormons, or "The Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints," as they prefer to call themselves, since Joseph Smith, Jr., kicked over the traces by pretending to oppose polygamy. Mrs. Shepard, a resident of Utah for twenty years, and an ardent worker in the cause of temperance, is thoroughly familiar with the Mormon situation, and her views are entitled to respect.

She is a born orator; her language is well-chosen, her gestures most natural and expressive, and her arguments are convincing as to the danger that threatens this country from the thoroughly organized and commercialized system of Mormonism.

She states that so far as polygamy is concerned, there is no difference between the Latter Day Saints and Mormons. Although polygamy was prohibited by Act of Congress, and apparently abandoned October 6th, 1890, she states that it prevails to a large extent, though carried on secretly. It is only when a man dies that his wives appear at the Temple, and may be counted.

She pointed out the enormous financial resources of the church; with twenty-two million dollars on deposit in New York, backed by two hundred millions more in the various banking institutions controlled by the Mormons in the West, their power is vast. They practically control the beet sugar interests of the country, and at this time have control of all the sugar-beet seed. Their system of tithing incomes is perfect, and vast sums flow into the coffers of the head of the church, who is accountable to no one for their disposition. Politically, they are daily growing in power; they now control eleven states, which means a representation in the United States Senate of twenty-two Senators, who directly or indirectly bow to their will. Eight of these states combined have a less population than Pennsylvania alone, which has only two Senators. Owing to their large sugar and other manufacturing and mining interests, coupled with their political, Mrs. Shepard states they even influence the supposedly free and independent press of the country.

She referred to the fact that many "Gentiles" visit Salt Lake City, and come away with a favorable opinion of the Mormons. This is due to their foxy cunning in taking every opportunity to seize the psychological moment for impressing visitors, who are admitted to the Temple, hear the grand music of the organ, and the dear old familiar hymns, like "Jesus Lover of My Soul," "Rock of Ages," etc., and a sermon from an accomplished preacher who skilfully avoids anything that would offend "Gentile" ears.

In view of the fact that the Mormons have upwards of 4000 missionaries in the field, actively working in the cause, of whom there are 400 in Pennsylvania alone, it is evident that there is a very real menace in the present situation, and it becomes the duty of all patriotic, Christian people to oppose this strong organization in every possible manner. It is a fact that Mormons obey the laws of their church in preference to the laws of the land, and any organization that does not yield allegiance to our country and its laws in preference to its own, is a traitorous organization and should be wiped out.

At the close of the meeting, a strong resolution was adopted in opposition to the Mormons and their policies, and Congress petitioned to pass laws that would put an end to polygamy.

America's representative Maestro Papalardo said: "It is my opinion that with the proper training, America can produce as good singers as can be found abroad, and surely Philadelphia can contribute its share because of the splendid material among its singers.

"Drill, incessant, patient drill, is the great secret of successful vocal teaching. The teacher must keep himself fresh and responsive every moment. He must never let his patience tire unless he is not getting results quickly enough. I remember once at the Pension Bonini in Milano, when I was coaching Lucrezia Bori in the role of Mme. Butterfly, the now celebrated prima donna had great difficulty in memorizing a scene from the second act. After many repetitions I grasped the score and shutting it placed it on my chair and sat upon it. 'Now Signorina Bori,' I said, 'we shall repeat the same thing, for three more times only, and if you will concentrate your mind determinedly you will have it.' This brought about the desired results at the first trial."

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER ALWAYS ON TIME

Talented Writer Boasts Working on Our Town Manuscript at Times Until 3 A. M.

To The Editor of "Our Town"
Frazier Purse, having Thanksgiving in mind, brought home a real live duck, warranted not to be moth-eaten, nor to bite, bark or kick. It was a bird! Knowing that a duck can't climb a fence, Purse turned it into the back yard to fatten up on grass, etc. Ducks usually thrive better, however, on grub they find in the water. Owing to the recent lack of rain, all the lakes and ponds on the Purse Estate had dried up. This made the duck rather disconsolate, as it was a proud old duck and felt that it should come to the dinner table looking as prosperous and debonaire as any other old duck. While wandering around the yard, ducky suddenly pricked up its ears. Water! Sure enough, Jacobs' Creek, making a noise very much like real water, could be distinctly heard. With just two wags of his tail, the duck was off for the famous water course, and while he is feeding on tin cans, old spring beds and other sea food for which the place is noted, we will leave him to return to the scene of his recent escape.

Brother Purse came out the next morning to inspect his duck, rather hoping that he might find a couple of duck eggs for breakfast. Instead, he found nothing but a goose egg and all base ball fans know how much nourishment they contain. The bird had flown. The duck had ducked. Well, Purse didn't chase the duck, because there wasn't any duck. He had forgotten that a duck can fly, and hence immediately suspected fowl play. The fence didn't show any sign of having been gnawed through and no ladder was visible. There is some down on a duck, but this one went up.

While pondering the subject, he suddenly saw a boy coming up the street leading the duck by the hand. Ducky had dined and breakfasted so well that he was really too fat to fly, too full for flutterance in fact, and it was all he could do to waddle home, a proud and happy duck whose ambition had been gratified.

That's how Purse lost his duck, and the duck found his Purse.

Don't quite get the idea of some of our neighbors hanging their American flags out after election, unless there has been a change of heart in certain quarters and the old emblem will now receive the long deferred Mexican salute.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gara are being felicitated on their survival of forty-two years of married life.

It is pathetic to listen to Dad trying to bluff the kids into believing they like beef stew as well as turk. It can't be done, Pop, and down in the bottom of your heart you are proud of the bairns for not falling for your bunk. Go pay 50 cents a pound and try to look happy.

SCHOOL NOTES

Watch for the School News from our new reporters. Here's the scheme: One school editor, three associate editors, one from the Senior High, one from the Junior High and one from the Elementary Department. A contributing student or reporter from each grade who will hand material to the Department Associate Editor.

Every desk is "out of storage." Today we are in need of fifteen additional desks. Welcome, new pupils! We shall share ours with you. Overflowing is our assembly, but as the principal stands for the fifteen minutes, some of us can too.

Our school had a splendid record last year for non-tardiness and attendance. But why not make it better this year? Pull together!

Again Mr. Melchior has announced: "Every pupil in this school is always welcome to interviews either with teacher or principal. My time is yours." Little do we pupils realize how close we are to our principal and our teachers. The school is for us. The teachers' time and thought are ours for the asking. Every teacher is at her desk from 8.25 to 8.40 A. M. to give individual help. A "new kink," but a good one if we get up in time.

Those of us who are careless or delinquent find the teachers do not wait for us to come—especially after "Faculty Consultation on Delinquents."

How do you like this? "In olden times the teacher's idea was 'to put the child through the school'; to-day it is 'to put the school through the child.'" This is part of a two minutes' talk by our principal on our relation to the school.

Office News.

The Thanksgiving program will be held at the usual hour, 8.45 to 10 A. M., Wednesday, November 29th. School will remain in session until regular closing time. There will be an all-day session on Friday.

Teachers and principal invite visits from parents either to see class work or for personal interview. Teachers may most conveniently be interviewed between 8.25 and 8.40 A. M., and after school hours. The principal welcomes patrons at any time excepting his class hour, 11.20 to 12 M.

The only exception to the above hours is Tuesday, from 2.40 to 3.30, this being faculty meeting hour.

Junior High Literary Society.
Sincere praise was showered upon the presiding officer, Sadie Me-toxen, of Carlisle Indian School, for her splendid presiding. She seemed to be perfectly at home, and her executive ability and pleasing personality captivated her teachers and companions.

Particularly noteworthy was the work of Lawrence Houston, who gave an original character sketch of Mark Twain. He spoke for twelve minutes "off hand." Florentine Miller sang sweetly. Emma Mueller presented a short practical talk to the society on "Literary Society Pointers."

We expect great things from this group of students under the direction of Miss Twining, Department of English, of the Junior High School.

Narberth High School Wins Their First Basket Ball Game, 48 to 26.

Narberth H. S. defeated a team of all stars from Haverford Prep, by a score of 48-26 last Friday afternoon. Although the H. S. boys piled up quite a score, the game was fast and interesting from start to finish. The galleries were crowded with enthusiastic rooters who put "pep" in the team by their yells and cheers, and incidentally filled the little gym with deafening noise throughout the whole game.

The team is in good condition, but needs drill in team work and coaching about fouls. The coach is, however, delighted with his year's prospects. The slogan is, "Win every game." The line-up was as follows:

Narberth H. S. All Stars.
L. Smith... r. forward... C. Humphrey
J. Dickey... l. forward... F. Winne
W. Durbin... center... D. Greenway
P. Redifer... guard... P. Humphrey
R. Compton... guard... E. Emingo
(Geo. Rose)

This Friday afternoon at 3.30, in the Y. M. C. A. gym, the team will meet Abington H. S. in the first game of the season.

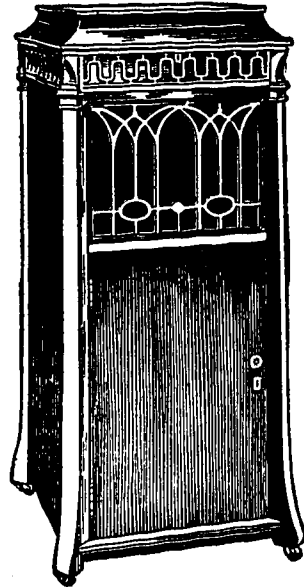

'CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER.

Every time Fred Rose hears any one telling about the wonderful things they have done he shifts his fatima and grunts: "That's what killed off buffaloes;" and when the mouthy fellow asks him "What?" he says, "Shoot-in' the bull."

I'll subscribe a jitney to a fund to provide calendars for some of those tennis nuts who don't know the season's over. During almost any fine blizzard you will see Chief-Rain-in-the-Face Kirkpatrick, Ponce de Leon Burkhardt, Red Williams and Fatty Staples, muffled in furs and sweaters, on the courts going through some motions which they fondly believe is tennis. I wouldn't send them to Norristown exactly, but think they'll bear watching.

"The Cub."

Everybody admires a "good sport"—one of those fellows who is generous in prosperity and cheerful in adversity. I gratefully acknowledge Ed. Haws' gift of a bottle of fine cider, and if the fruits of his victory Election Day are half as sweet to him as this cider is to me, they are sweet indeed. With the best of feeling, Ed., I can only say: "Here's hoping I can return your graceful compliment some of these days and that we'll sample it together in the new post office building.

"SAYS MRS. BROWN."

"I'm so frustrated, Mrs. Green, that I don't know which end my head is on. I've run every step of the way over here to tell you the news."

Sounds natural, doesn't it? Change the names and you can fit the paragraph into your immediate neighborhood, can't you?

Well, let's all laugh together about "the news" at the Arcade Theatre, Monday evening, December 4th. Benefit Woman's Suffrage party of Narberth.

The above is a new department, and in order that it shall be of the largest use to the community the list should contain the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen.
As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their name, address, phone number and business or profession, for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue; 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
